The Bajaj Center is situated in NARI's main campus (18°09'15"N,74°02'00"E), which is 4 km outside Phaltan town. Phaltan is the taluka headquarters and is about 300 km Southeast of Mumbai and 100 km from Pune.

There are regular trains and buses from Mumbai CST to Pune Junction and from Pune there are regular local buses to Phaltan. Arriving at Pune Junction, leave the train station from the main entrance to the South and walk to the adjacent bus station on the Southwest. Buses leave roughly every half hour and the journey takes about three hours.

The roads to Phaltan have many pot holes. Be prepared for a bumpy ride!
